Tom all great points.

I will comment on this shortly with details of everyone I've spoken to and where they are mentally.

In addition, I'll send you the latest document regarding who WV owes what to in the way of commissions in order to convert to ownership.

Thank you, Dan

guys-

I think we are all set to go. we need to have our stuff together to hit ground running on Friday when you all meet with the PAC team. I think momentum and confidence are the two critical items for success here. here are my thoughts on how we get both asap so we increase our odds for success in the ppm as well as the size of that success

1. Dan and Wayne- we need to finalize the conversion of what amounts they plan to convert of their amounts owe to them from WV. hopefully most if not all. Brian- can you get with Wayne and Dan the amounts are owed to them, the breakdown and then finalize how much each wants to convert?

2. WV management and consultants- we need to get as much from insiders to convert as possible. i suggest at a minimum any amounts owed to them for past due services, expenses or bonuses. Additionally, we should look at any bonuses currently being paid and maybe convert what we can which is reasonable into the PPM. I am happy to invest amounts paid to me as part of this PPM cash pay if it is reasonably successful.

3. Synergistic Prospects- we should try to get any synergistic prospects closed fast. any vendors, travel partners, etc. converted fast will be both synergistic and confidence building. For instance, josh can we get the founder of Cheap Caribbean to do 500k as part of PPM. it would carry huge amount of weight getting others to commit. other soft targets like that is ho erin.

4. Select Members of the PAC team and down line- we should reach out to the easy, most supportive and most likely to invest and try to get them locked up before friday with a soft commitment. this is critical to get momentum going our way. if three people in the room are already committed it creates huge pressure for other to join.

Hopefully the plan is to have maybe 8-10 million committed before friday. how can i help?

Thank tons.
